

HAZEL GREEN HERALD.

SPENCER COOPER, Owner and Editor.

"Of a Noisy World, With News From All Nations Lumbering at His Back."

$1.00 A YEAR, Always in Advance.

SEVENTH YEAR.

HAZEL GREEN, WOLFE COUNTY, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1891.

NUMBER 38.

We Mourn the Loss of Profits.

GREAT FIFTY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR

SALE OF CLOTHING

We are going to make some improvements in our store room after January 1st. The contract is signed and sealed with the contractors—consequently we are compelled to sell our stock or pack it away. We prefer selling it at a sacrifice.

NOTHING RESERVED

Every suit of Clothes, every Overcoat, every Pair of Pants marked in plain figures. We will just split them in half. This means 50 cents on the dollar. The cheapest sale of fine ready made Clothing in Kentucky.

Our business is not conducted by fakes and guessing schemes. The man that's selling watch chains on the street can't afford to throw in a watch just to show his generosity, needs watching. "Bunco Steers," "Rattle Dazzle" tricksters and green goods sharpers always promise great returns from small investments. Intelligent minds are on the racket, and take no stock in such humbuggery. 'Tis a value they want.

100 CENTS WORTH OF GOODS

FOR 100 CENTS IN CASH

Is what we give the people. But at this sale

100 CENTS WORTH AT 50 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR!

Every article in our establishment is ticketed at the lowest price possible. The stamp of durability is on every garment. If you have not dealt with us, ask your neighbor, who has. We invite you to our store, feeling assured that you will be pleased with our garments and satisfied with the matchless values we offer.

L. & G. STRAUS,
LEADING CLOTHIERS,
LEXINGTON, : : KENTUCKY.

COUSSEN'S LIGHTNING LINIMENT

FOR MAN OR BEAST

USED FOR THE PAST 20 YEARS FOR RHEUMATISM
SAFE LAME BACK SPRAINS ETC.
SURE SPEEDY CURED BY ONE APPLICATION CURES CROUP
BY RICHARDSON-TAYLOR MED. CO. ST. LOUIS, MO.

The English Kitchen

12 West Short Street, LEXINGTON, KY.
A: Model Restaurant: in: Almost: Every: Feature.
SEATING CAPACITY 150.

Fresh Oysters at all seasons. Blue Points, Saddle Rocks, New York Counts and Mobile Counts.

REGULAR MEALS 25 CENTS.

Meals to order all hours. Delicacies of the season always on hand. The most complete and modern kitchen in the State. Among the recent additions is a Miller Improved Range, the finest in the world, with eighteen fire, six steaming attachments, two large broilers, and hot and cold water reservoirs. This range will cook anything from a half a beef to a tid-bit of sweetbread, and is the only one of the kind in Kentucky.

A hearty welcome and the most courteous treatment to all.

GUS LUGART, Proprietor.

J. W. CRAVEN,
HAZEL GREEN, KY.

UNDERTAKER
—AND DEALER IN—
COFFINS, CASKETS,
And Trimmings of All Kinds.

I am prepared to furnish, on short notice and at low prices, COFFINS OF ALL KINDS AND SIZES, from the cheapest to the very finest. I can furnish coffins cheaper than they can be by the trimmings. Price of Coffins from $3 up. I have a fine hearse, and will deliver coffins cheap.

FURNITURE OF ALL KINDS: REPAIRED.

TOMBSTONES! My arrangements are such that I can furnish Tombstones or Monuments from any kind of Marble or Granite, and at the very lowest prices. Very respectfully, J. W. CRAVEN.

STATE SUNSHINE AND SHADOW.

THE United States Court is in session at Covington this week.

LOUIS THORNTON was shot and killed by Wm. H. Williamson at Newport last week.

JOHN CAUFIELD, of Louisville, was last week stabbed by his son, with whom he had a quarrel.

JUDGE DEHAVEN has been appointed by Gov. Brown to try the Moore-Showers case at Elizabethtown.

Mrs. LAURA ROGERS, who died at Lexington last week, left $100,000 to two Mississippi nephews named Warfield.

THREE persons died of apoplexy at Paris last week, viz: Eli M. Kennedy, Simon Current and James Stephenson.

THE Postoffice at Falmouth has been raised from the fourth class to a Presidential office, dating from Jan. 1, 1892.

A FIRE in Greenup County last week destroyed several shock of corn and hay stacks. It was the work of incendiaries.

Gov. BROWN has fixed February 5th as the date of execution of Wm. Puckett, for the murder of Henry Hall, in Estill County.

KENTUCKY cities of the fifth class were to send delegates to Louisville on Wednesday to confer about a charter for said cities.

JUDGE W. O. HARRIS, of Louisville, is prominently mentioned as the successor to John A. Minor, the veteran Professor of Law at the University of Virginia.

The remains of Major George W. McKee, U. S. A., were incinerated at Samson's Crematory, near Pittsburgh, Thursday last, and the ashes were sent to Lexington for burial.

THE Town Marshal of Glasgow last week arrested three strange negroes at that place for holding up and robbing a man and attempting to rob Conductor Lloyd, of the Mammoth Cave Road.

THE Court of Appeals last week fell into line with the new Constitution, by the adoption of a rule ordering that all petitions for a rehearing shall be considered by a Judge other than the one who delivered the opinion in the case.

THE Three Forks Deposit Bank, of Beattyville, has brought suit against the Ohio Valley Improvement and Contract Company and the Louisville Trust Company, its assignees, for judgment on two protested notes of $1,536.45 each, and mechanical lien.

W. G. HOLLOWAY, one of the election officers in the Louisville City election recently, was last week arrested, charged with forgery, perjury and violating the election laws. So it seems, after all, that the kangaroo ballot was not a success in the Falls City, at least.

EN POOL and Wm. Fisher, 14-year old boys, narrowly escaped drowning in the river at Louisville last Thursday. The current was too strong for them and drifted their frail boat onto the falls. The Life Savers went to their rescue and saved them by throwing out a rope.

THE trial of Wills Howard, the outlaw of this State, for murder in Missouri, was last week continued in the Lebanon (Mo.) Circuit Court until the February term. In the meantime Wills will remain in the St. Louis Jail for safe-keeping. There are 70 witnesses in the Missouri case against Howard.

THE Court of Appeals on Thursday last, in an opinion by Judge Lewis, affirmed the judgment of the City Court of Louisville in imposing a fine of $50 each against the Kentucky and University Clubs of Louisville for unlawfully keeping a club-room wherein malt and spirituous liquors are sold by retail without first having obtained the $200 license required in the city ordinance.

THE bondholders intend to ask Judge Barr, of the U. S. Court, to permit the Receiver of the Richmond, Nicholasville, Irvine and Beattyville Railroad, Mr. MacLeod, to issue certificates to the amount of $100,000 or $150,000, which, added to the $365,000 yet due in county subscriptions, will pay for the completion of the road. The construction company has contracted with Mallory, Cushing & Co., of Omaha, to take these unpaid county subscriptions and $100,000 more, making $450,000, to complete the road, and the Court will be asked to confirm this.

Happy and content is a home with "The Rochester," a lamp with the lighted morning. For sale by the Rochester Lamp Co., New York.

WE DO THE

CLOTHING BUSINESS

IN CENTRAL KENTUCKY.

You can make your fare and at least 20 per cent. besides to come to Lexington and buy your Clothing.

SUITS AND OVERCOATS,
for Men and Boys, from us. Besides this, we offer you the largest stock to select from that you can see anywhere.

If you can't come, write and

— TELL US WHAT YOU WANT —

and we'll send you samples to select from. If goods don't suit what we sell or send you, RETURN AT OUR EXPENSE. If you want a suit made to order and can't come, let us know and we'll send you samples and measuring black with directions to take your measure, and we'll astonish you how cheap we can make your clothes to order for you. WE SELL WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

ONE PRICE CLOTHING HOUSE,

M. KAUFMAN & CO.

54 East Main Street, LEXINGTON, KY.

J. M. KELLY, President.

WM. BRIGHT, Secretary and Treasurer.

—WHENEVER YOU VISIT LEXINGTON,— —CALL ON THE—

Lexington Foundry Co.

Office 99 EAST MAIN STREET.

Shop K. U. RAILROAD, near 7th St.

They are operating THE LARGEST FOUNDRY AND MACHINE SHOP IN THE State east of Louisville.

ALL kinds of BOILER AND ENGINE REPAIRING SKILLFULLY DONE, AT THE LOWEST LIVING PRICES. J. M. KELLY, President.

Office 99 EAST MAIN STREET,
Foundry on K. U. RAILROAD, } - Lexington, Ky.

CHEAPER SCHOOL BOOKS.

The undersigned takes pleasure in announcing that they have just completed arrangements with the American Book Company that will enable him to sell the school-books adopted by the State Board of Education at the following reduced rates:

McGuffey's Small Primer.....	3 1/2	Key's New First Arithmetic.....	15
" Revised Primer.....	4 1/2	" Second Arithmetic.....	15
" Third Arithmetic.....	12	" Key to same.....	50
" First Reader.....	17	" High Arithmetic.....	45
" Second Reader.....	30	" Key to same.....	75
" Third Reader.....	42	McGuffey's 1st Eclectic Geography.....	55
" Fourth Reader.....	50	" 2d Eclectic Geography.....	8 1/2
" Fifth Reader.....	75	" 3d Eclectic Geography.....	1 30
" Sixth Reader.....	85

The above school-book publications of the American Book Company are well-known standards, and we sell at all times have a full supply on hand for sale to school officers, teachers or pupils at the prices named. Other school-books published by the American Book Company, 127 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, supplied at correspondingly low prices. J. T. DAY & CO., Hazel Green, Ky.

"Seeing is Believing."

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this lamp. "The Rochester." If the lamp dealer hasn't the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 3,000 varieties from the Longest Lamp Store in the World.

ROCHESTER LAMP CO., 43 Park Place, New York City.

"The Rochester."

JAY-EYE-SEE 2:10
MR. J. I. CASE, (Hickory Grove Farm, home of Jay-Eye-See), Hazlet, Wis., says: "After trying every known remedy, I have recovered a large blind of two years standing, from a 3 year old filly, with three applications of QUINN'S OINTMENT."
It is the best preparation I have ever used or heard of. I heartily recommend it to all Horsemen.
We have hundreds of such testimonials.

Price, $1.50 per bottle. Ask your druggist for it. If he does not keep it, send to the druggist or at once for trial box. W. B. EDDY & CO., Whitehall, N. Y.

PATTON BROS.,
WHOLESALE MANUFACTURING DRUGGISTS
CATLETTSBURG, KY.

The Largest Drug House in the Ohio Valley.

Manufacturers of 228 REMEDIES that are sold by the Dozen.

16,000 Square Feet of Floor Room. 28 Hands Employed.

HERVE KINO!
The only remedy that is sold on an absolute guarantee to cure all Pains and Aches, Cramps and Colic, Diarrhea, Indigestion, etc. Used internally and externally. The best Liniment in the world. PRICE 25 CENTS.

HINDOO KIDNEY CORDIAL!
For the permanent cure of Pains in the Back, and all disorders of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs. Thousands of certificates of those who have used this remedy, will be sent on application. PRICE 50 CENTS.

For Sale by DRUG STORES, AND COUNTRY STORES EVERYWHERE.

HAZEL GREEN HERALD.

SPENCER COOPER. - - - Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.:
FRIDAY, - Dec. 11, 1891.

BRIEF EDITORIALS AND NEWS NOTES.

ELSEWHERE we publish a call from J. F. QUICKBALL, Chairman of the Peoples Party for the Tenth Congressional District, for a meeting at Campton on Jan. 2nd, 1892, to effect a permanent organization in this district. We are not informed as to whether an attempt will be made to organize this party in other districts of the State, or not, but the defeat the party suffered last fall, when Mr. QUICKBALL himself boasted that they would poll 100,000 or more votes and in all probability elect ERWIN Governor, should be sufficient to deter all sound thinking men from participation with it. "A burnt child dreads the fire," and we know of many who were badly burnt in this party movement last fall that can not now be induced to "touch it with a ten foot pole." Hence it is hard to see what object again prompts agitation of the matter now. Both Democrats and Republicans who were led off by the deceptive decoy, "Peoples Party," in the last August election, denounce it in unmeasured terms, and many Alliance organizations in the State have repudiated it. Again we ask, Who has an ax to grind?

A CRANK giving his name as H. D. WILSON entered the office of RUSSELL SAGE, the New York millionaire, on Friday and demanded the immediate payment of $1,250,000, threatening to kill every body in the office unless the money was forthcoming. Mr. SAGE turned away from him and an explosion followed, by which a clerk in the office and the crank were torn to shreds, nothing of the latter being found but his head and legs. Mr. SAGE escaped with only slight bruises, though blown across the room. Subsequent investigation developed the fact that WILSON, who threw the dynamite bomb, was an escaped lunatic.

THE statement has recently been made to a special from Frankfort that "Gov. Brown will stand by his friends." We are glad to hear this for it may mean much to us, as we were his friend during the time of "a friend in need." The tables are now turned, and we are the "friend in need." Reciprocity may perhaps prompt him to pass around the plum-pudding, or at least a left over scrap, and, remembering the fight we made for his nomination, we will nab our piece as soon as the plate reaches us.

THE news indicates that Mr. MILLER, of Texas, will be Speaker of the National House of Representatives. At this writing his friends in Washington are quite sanguine. The only obstacle between him and success, is Mr. SPRINGER, of Illinois, and it is thought that the forces of the latter will go to him in the final contest. That Mr. MILLER is the choice of the people is patent to all who have read the papers, and in our next issue we hope to announce that he is the man, and that the people have won.

GREEN R. KILLER, editor of the Carle Mercury, promulgates the following bit of interesting information: "The Kentucky Legislature meets on the 30th inst. Some of our exchanges have published that the Legislature meets on the 31st of December, but this is a mistake. The editor of the Mercury, as Clerk of the last House, will call the House to order Wednesday, Dec. 30, 1891, at 12 o'clock m., and if you want to be at the opening you had better be there that day."

TWELVE barges, cast adrift during a storm on the Hudson River Friday night, were capsized by the waves, and 20 persons drowned. There were 50 persons on board the barges, and the survivors saved themselves by clinging to the overturned boats or swimming ashore.

ONE of the worst snowstorms known in years visited the vicinity of Carlisle, Pa., Friday afternoon, where the loss will amount to $100,000. At Mercantile 13 buildings were blown down, and through the country barns were wrecked and crops ruined.

GOV. BROWN on Friday pardoned JAMES BOACH, a little girl sentenced to the penitentiary from Ohio County.

MORGAN COUNTY.

Fast Evolutions.

—Died, on the 6th inst., at her home on Toms Branch, after a short illness, Widow Elizabeth KASH. She will be brought to the B. F. Cockrill graveyard for burial today. The writer had been acquainted with her for many years and takes pleasure in saying that she was an exceptionally industrious mother and a Christian lady of few equals.

Some of our Fast boys who are attending school at Hazel Green, accompanied by Richmond DeBuck, were down on a short visit Saturday and report everything flourishing and satisfactory at school.

—The school taught by Mrs. Mary F. Nichell, at this place, closed last Friday. She will go to Mt. Sterling this week, where she will make her future home.

—Our fellow-townsmen, Samuel Rice, recently felt heir to a sure remedy for hard times. Pension. See?

—Benjamin Wages' wife, living on Blackwater below here, is very low, and her recovery doubtful.

Dec. 7. BURET.

A Guaranteed Remedy.

MIGRIMINE, the only permanent cure for all forms of headache and neuralgia, relieves the pain in from 15 to 20 minutes. For sale on positive guarantee at THE HERALD office, or sent postpaid by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents a box.

First Official Call.

EZEL MORGAN COUNTY, KY., Dec. 10, 1891.—The voters of the several counties composing the Tenth Congressional District of Kentucky, who are interested in good government, will meet at the Court House of their respective counties on Saturday, Dec. 26, 1891, at 12 o'clock (noon) and proceed to organize a People's Party in said county, by first electing a Chairman and Secretary. They will then elect one Committeeman for each voting precinct; said Committee will then hold a meeting and elect one of their number Chairman, who, by virtue thereof, will be a member of the Tenth Congressional District Committee, and they will please meet at Campton, Wolfe County, Ky., on Saturday, Jan. 2, 1892, for the purpose of making a permanent organization; and the Secretaries of County and Committee meetings will please notify me at once of the action taken, giving names, etc., and give certificate of election to the persons elected, signed by the Secretary and Chairman. Secretaries will write me at once after such meetings, as other important communications are necessary.

J. E. QUICKBALL, Chairman P. P. 10th Cong. Dist. Papers in the district are requested to copy. Respectfully, J. E. Q.

He Wants The Herald in His New Home. Pearl, Texas, Nov. 25, 1891.—Dear Sir, My postoffice address is Pearl, Tex., to which place I would like to have my HERALD sent. I have received but one copy of THE HERALD since I have been here. I am well satisfied with Texas. With love to all my Kentucky friends, I remain, Yours, &c., T. J. STEPHENSON.

WE WANT 1,000 doz. eggs at 10c. We want your country produce. We want your surplus cheese, and we want to sell you goods cheaper than anybody. H. F. PIERATT & Co.

ONE DOLLAR WEEKLY Buys a good Gold Watch by our Club System. Our 14-karat gold-filled cases are warranted for 20 years. Fine Elgin or Waltham movement. Stem wind and set. Lady's or Gent's size. Equal to any $50 watch. To secure agents where we have none, we sell one of the Hunting Case Watches for the Club price $25 and send C. O. D. by express with privilege of examination before paying for same.

Our Agent at Durham, N. C., writes: "Our jeweler has confessed they don't know how you can furnish such work for the money."

Our Agent at Hroth Springs, S. C., writes: "Your watches take at sight. The gentleman who got the last watch said that he examined and priced a jeweler's watches in Lancaster, that no better than yours, but the price was $45."

Our Agent at Pennington, Tex., writes: "Am in receipt of the watch, and am pleased without measure. All who have seen it say it would be cheap at $40."

One good reliable Agent wanted for each place. Write for particulars.

H. B. MAUPIN, WITH D. H. CARPENTER, WHOLESALE DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, BOOTS, SHOES, &c. CLEVELAND, OHIO.

W. J. SEITZ, WITH Thos. Henderson & Son, WHOLESALE HARDWARE, ASHLAND, KY.

2148. Citizens National Bank WINCHESTER, KENTUCKY.

PAID UP CAPITAL, $175,000.00.

WASH MILLER, PRESIDENT.

S. W. WILLIS, VICE-PRESIDENT.

A. H. HAMPTON, CASHIER.

J. W. POYNTER, ASST. CASHIER.

Has ample facilities for doing a general banking business. Solicits deposits, makes collections, gives prompt and careful attention to all business entrusted to it, and extends to its customers the most liberal accommodations consistent with correct banking business.

Watches retailed at wholesale prices. Call or write for anything in the

JEWELRY LINE.

Established quarter of a century. Everything fully guaranteed.

Otis W. Snyder, No. 8 NORTH UPPER STREET, LEXINGTON, KY.

A. MOS DAVIS, WITH BETTMAN BROS. & Co. Manufacturers of CLOTHING, 96 W. Pearl street, Cincinnati, O.

Headquarters at West Liberty, Ky.

Trimble Bros., WHOLESALE

GROCERS, MT. STERLING, KY.

Consignments of produce and the patronage of Mountain Merchants respectfully solicited. jcl,ly

Traders Deposit Bank, MT. STERLING, KY.

CAPITAL, $200,000. | SURPLUS, $30,000. J. M. BIGSTAFF, President. G. L. KIRKPATRICK, Vice President. W. W. THOMPSON, Cashier.

We respectfully solicit the business of merchants, farmers, traders and business men generally throughout Eastern Kentucky. A general banking business done. Give us a chance to send you a bank book, pay your checks, and loan you money when in need. W. W. THOMPSON, Cash.

The justly celebrated "Perrin" steel pens are sold at this office at 10 cents a dozen, and the best pencil in town, at 6c apiece.

THE WINCHESTER BANK, WINCHESTER, KY.

N. H. WITHERSPOON, President. R. D. HUNTER, Cashier.

Paid up Capital, $200,000.00. Surplus, $60,000.00. This Bank solicits the accounts of merchants, farmers, traders and business men generally throughout Eastern Kentucky and offers its customers every facility, and the most liberal terms within the limits of legitimate banking. oct18,ly

J. H. PIERATT, Livery, Feed and Sale Stable, HAZEL GREEN, KY.

Double and Single Rigs and Saddle Horses for hire. Parties conveyed to any point on reasonable terms.

I will also attend to all calls for auctioneering, and solicit business of this kind. Respectfully, &c., JOHN H. PIERATT.

STATE COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY.

26 PROFESSORS AND INSTRUCTORS. Agricultural, Scientific, Engineering, Classical, Normal School, Academic, Commercial and Military Courses of Study. COUNTY APPOINTMENTS RECEIVED FREE OF TUITION.

Fail term begins September 9th, 1891. Board in dormitory $2 per week; in private families $3.50 to $4. For Catalogue address JAS. K. PATTERSON, PH. D., LEXINGTON, KY.

R. S. STRADER & SON, (Successors to J. A. LAIL & Co.)

74 E. MAIN STREET, LEXINGTON, KY.

Wholesale Dealers in Straight Kentucky Whiskies,

Wines, Brandies, &c. FINE OLD WHISKY A SPECIALTY.

CIGARS AND TOBACCO. Agents for "Old Pugh, Old Pepper, Old Tarr and Old Taylor."

THE CLARENDON Cor. Limestone and Short st., W. H. BOSWELL, PROPRIETOR.

There has been added an Annex with 20 large, well ventilated rooms. Street cars pass the door every five minutes. Located within two squares of depot.

DR. J. A. TAULBEE, Physician and Surgeon, Hazel Green, Wolfe County, KENTUCKY.

Business Education THOROUGH INSTRUCTION IN BOOK-KEEPING, SHORT-HAND, TYPE-WRITING, PENMANSHIP, TELEGRAPHY, ETC., AT THE DRYANT & STRATTON BUSINESS COLLEGE SOUTH-WEST CORNER THIRD AND JEFFERSON STREETS, LOUISVILLE, KY. CATALOGUE FREE.

J. R. Sharp. Bruce Trimble. T. G. Denton. SHARP, TRIMBLE & DENTON, MT. STERLING, KY.

Have now a complete line of Clothing, Hats, Boots, Shoes and Gents' Furnishing Goods. We solicit an inspection of our goods, and guarantee prices satisfactory and articles as recommended.

I. DINGFELDER, WITH J. M. ROBINSON & CO., Importers and Jobbers of

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS, Nos. 537, 539 and 541—

—West Main Street, LOUISVILLE, KY.

Scientific American Agency for

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS, DESIGN PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, ETC. For information and free Handbook write to J. MUNN & CO., 361 Broadway, New York. Office, London, for correspondence in America. Every patent taken out by us is brought before the public by a notice given free of charge in the Scientific American Largest circulation of any scientific paper in the world. Scientific illustrations. No intelligent man should be without it. Weekly, $3.00 a year; 10.00 six months. Address MUNN & CO., 361 Broadway, New York.

EMPIRE WATCH CO., New York. OOD & DAY, J. A. T. WOOD, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Office over Exchange Bank, Mayville St. Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Practise in Montgomery, Powell, Menifee, Wolfe, Breathitt, Rowan, Magoffin and Morgan counties, and Superior Court and Court of Appeals.

ORRER & BIGSTAFF, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, MT. STERLING, KY.

Practise in the courts of Montgomery and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals and Federal Courts.

J. H. BENNETT, WITH YANKIE SEIP & CO., JOHNSON OF

Hats, Caps, Gloves, Straw Goods AND UMBRELLAS. 82 N. FAIR ST. - CHILLICOTHE, O.

Hazel Green Herald.

SPENCER COOPER, Publisher.

HAZEL GREEN, 1st 1st KY.

ON AN OLD WOMAN SINGING.

Scarcely the words that I have heard
From great boughs and the bellows of wind,
From children bubbling o'er with wine,
Whisper still held me half in awe,
And surely have hummed everywhere
Their drowsy base along the air:
From hunters and the hunting horns
Before the day star waked the morn;
From business in amorous clank,
Where, richer than a puff of smoke,
The blossom breath they drifted through
Fell out of branches drenched with dew.

And sweet the strains that come to me
When in great reveries I am
All that full throated quivering throng
Go streaming on the winds of song:
Her who is in upper sky
Round the blue of Valerian's eye,
With golden chain of shield and spear,
Singing for only glory there;
And her who on that trumpet brass
Bangs "Angels Ever Bright and Fair,"
Her voice, her presence, here she stood,
Already past of angelhood.

But never have I heard in song
Sweetness and sorrow so profound
Their being as living, as their singing
Above vibrating silver strings
As when, with all her eighty years,
With all her first love's blood in tears,
A little woman, with a look
Like some flower-bell in a book,
Lifted a full and glowing line of song,
And like the sharrow made her home,
Forgotten that another heard,
And sang till all her soul was stirred.

And listening, oh, what joy and grief
Trembled there like a trembling leaf!
The strain where first love thrilled the bars
Beneath the pulsing of the stars,
The murmur of soft lullabies
Above four murmuring eaves of song,
The lyrics where once her pure soul trod
The heights above the hills of flood—
All on a quivering line of song,
And in a silent passion broke,
And made that lower lung and throat
The sweetest song I ever heard.

—Harriet Prescott Spofford, in Harper's Bazar.

CHAPTER IV.

When old Hiram Green announced to the world that he had discovered and disinterred his son he felt he had put the finishing stroke to his duty. When he thundered forth the awful edict he ended his connection with the story, so he gently dropped him out of his pages, feeling that his absence could well be spared. Blatchford, however, cannot so readily be disposed of, since he figures in the narrative to the end, therefore it is necessary to go back and give a little further account of him.

At the time John and Mary married, Hiram Blatchford had been a widower for two years, and he remained so until after his daughter's marriage to Kansas. Soon after that event, though, he met Miss Sarah Spickler, an elderly spinster, and asked her to share his home. Miss Spickler having been on the matrimonial market for nearly many years, with no bidders for her hand, was desperate enough to accept any sort of offer, and accordingly she snatched Blatchford as a husband.

Miss Spickler was anything but pretty, and her temper was soured and her intellect none of the strongest, yet she had not been in the Blatchford home a week, as Mrs. Blatchford, before she had been installed under her thumb, and held complete sway over everything and everybody about the place.

Blatchford was her slave from the first, and with him her word was law. Whatever she wished she had, and whatever she commanded to be done was done without delay. She married Blatchford for his money, and she was determined from that time to have it.

A month or so after his marriage Blatchford began to study about his daughter, and the more he thought of her the more he became convinced that he had ill-treated her. In short, after so long a time he came to the conclusion that he was as much to blame as Mary, and knowing that she must be suffering privations, he decided to endeavor to her the hand of friendship and offer to her and John some pecuniary assistance. Having come to this conclusion, he hastened to mention the matter to his wife, but her answer was Sarah listened until he had unfolded his plans, then with uplifted hands and staring eyes exclaimed:

"Well, did I ever hear of such a thing as that! Hiram Blatchford, have you just told your son-in-law?"

"Why, Sarah," Hiram replied, taken back, "what is the matter?"

"Matter!" Sarah repeated. "Well, I'd never a believed it, never."

"Never believed it, never?"

"Why, that you could ever have been taken with such fool notions, Hiram. Whoever heard of the like of it?"

"Why, I—?" Hiram stammered and stopped.

"Why, you," Sarah put in, "want to be a fool, Hiram Blatchford, a regular out and out fool, you do. That's all there is of it. The idea of me making the first step towards a reconciliation between you and your daughter, when she threw you away for the sake of John Green. Yes, if I was you I would. I'd go and get down on my knees to her, and own that I was in the wrong. Yes, I'd do all that, and beg her with tears in my eyes to come back to my arms."

"Sarah, I—?"

"Yes, I know what you thought, Hiram. I know that your soft, silly love prompts you to make a fool of yourself. But before you do it, ask yourself if it would be right. Wasn't you always kind and indulgent to Mary, and didn't you do everything for her that a father could do?"

"Yes, that's true," Hiram replied with no little inward satisfaction, and with a growing feeling that he was a much abused parent.

"Then you have done your duty, Hiram, more than your duty, and if anybody is to bend the knee let it be the one who has done wrong. I don't believe in a father being made a slave to the whim and wishes of an ungrateful child. If I had ever such a father as you, and had ever crossed him in one way or another, I never would have forgiven myself. I couldn't ever looked the world in the face after being so heartless and ungrateful. Oh Hiram, what a noble, loving, forgiving nature you have, and how unfeeling I have been! I have been the child who could so ruthlessly trample upon it."

At this point the good Sarah, who all along had shown strong symptoms of weeping, was so overcome that she could restrain her tears no longer, and broke down and poured forth in a perfect flood on her husband's shoulder. Hiram was deeply touched, and he was forced to exert himself to keep back the tears of self pity that welled up in his own eyes. He had never before realized how deeply he had been wronged, and never before had he understood how much he had been hurtful. His heart went out to himself, and he pitied himself from the bottom of his soul.

"There, there, Sarah," he said, "don't let the tenderness of your heart cause you to grieve too sorely for what I have been made to suffer. I promise you that I shall not forget my wrongs again soon, since the weakness that possessed me has been laid to rest. I shall never make any advances to a child who so far forgot her duty to me and treated me with such cruelty, and I am glad that you recalled me to myself in time to save me from taking the step I had anticipated."

Sarah checked her tears and the effort gave her sobbing ceased. The deed she had made had been a great one, and her soul was terribly sore from the effects of it, but she had saved her husband from abusing himself and sinking his dignity, and she was satisfied. Of course she had saved him from all excessive Mary's complaint and kept that much more money for herself, but that would not count for anything with such a noble soul as that of the angelic Sarah.

"Hiram," she said when she had got her feelings sufficiently under control to be able to converse her tears and sobs.

"I hope I have not said too much. I am sorry that your daughter cannot occupy the place in your heart that a child would occupy in the heart of a parent, and I know I would be the last person to aid in estranging you from her. Perhaps I have said too much, but I have your good so deeply at heart that I couldn't help saying what I did. It was all for the sake of your loving, generous self."

"I know that, Sarah. I do not misunderstand you. I know how it pains you to have to say any thing, but I feel it to be your duty, and you do it. I thank you, my dear wife, with all my heart, for your disinterested mindfulness of me. Let us now drop the subject and try to forget it. It is no right that you should afflict yourself with thoughts of one who is so far beneath you in point of goodness, and I will try and think of her with as much charity as possible. I say, and I think feel the ingratitude of one's own flesh and blood—a sad thing to be a parent spurned by the child for whom I have done so much. But I can live over it."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

wounded heart; he, a man who was as void of heart as the veriest flint.

A week or so after the incident described Sarah came to Hiram with a letter from John, in which the latter was informed of the death of a married sister. Her sister had left three children, and Sarah's tender heart prompted her to take them and care for them if Hiram wasn't averse to it.

"Hiring them right along," Hiram said, "we have plenty and they must not suffer. Send for them at once."

Aid old man, whose was your conscience, your sense of right, that it did not prick you when you thus opened your home to a horde of strangers, and admitted them to the place that belonged to one who needed it more? Where was your good angel that it did not whisper to you of the sorrow and trouble, the foundation of which you that moment laid with your own hand.

The orphan was duly installed in Blatchford's care, and by him were educated and supported. The eldest, a boy named Harry, was taken into the home, and of him we shall hear more later on, as he figures quite extensively in this history, which would probably be less said if it were less true.

CHAPTER V.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER.

With their newly secured "accommodation" John Green's family managed to get through the winter without suffering anything beyond severe privations. Their clothing and fare was, of course, common and limited, but that was nothing so long as it kept them from starving and freezing.

It was, of course, off on the prairie, with no friends or companions, and no books or papers, and with nothing to do but to clear life through the days. The nearest neighbor lived two miles away, and that was Markham's, and he was as well have been forty miles away, for all the good they were to Green's, for since that night when Markham talked so abusively to Louise there had been no intercourse between the two families.

Louise grew pensive and melancholy, and it was plain that she longed for a different life, though she never uttered a complaining word. Once shortly after Christmas she and her mother were alone in the cabin, and after they had sat a long time silent Louise suddenly said:

"Mother, I wish I could manage some way to go on with my education."

"So do I, Louise," Mary answered; "but I can't think of any way that it can be managed. If going to the school could help you with your studies, but we haven't the money to buy books."

"I know that, mother, but I was thinking that I might borrow some."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"I know who has them," Louise replied, "but I don't know whether you would want me to get them from him. Paul has lots of books that he brought from school with him, and he has often proposed to let me have them."

"I don't know who you could borrow them from, Louise. I don't suppose anyone about here has them."

"Why, I'm sure I have a right to my child. He is a quiet, industrious, young man, and I want that he be a Markham I couldn't say a word about it."

"He is a Markham, mother, but he is not like his father. It is as generous and kind as he can be, and I do wish you and pa would be friendly with him. I want to see to it that he has a suspicion of something underlying this unbecoming interest felt by Louise in Paul, and for several minutes she was undecided how to proceed. Finally she took the girl's hand in her hands and lifted it up until the face was opposite her own, and if she had wanted any further evidence to confirm the truth of her surmises, she would have found it in the telltale blushes that swept over the fair young cheeks.

"Louise," she said, "don't keep any secrets from me, but tell me why you take such a deep interest in Paul. I've been thinking—don't think me silly, mother, for I can't help it. I love him."

These last words were spoken in a faint whisper, but Mary understood that the girl's heart was fully in the pressed her close to her bosom, and thus they remained for a long time. Mary was the first to break the silence.

"Paul shall never receive anything but the best of treatment from me," she said, "and I know John will treat him as a gentleman. Paul is a good man, and if you love him he shall have my love too."

"Thank you, mamma. I know you would like him, for my sake, and you will like him better when you know how good and noble he is."

"Then another long silence followed, and at last Mary said:

"This Paul spoken to you of love, Louise?"

"No, he never has. That is, not exactly."

"And are you sure you love him?"

"I know I love him, mamma, he is so good and kind, and is all the friend I have asked for and pa."

"I am sure you do, Louise. In the girl's earnestness and trusting the soft, brown hair gently said:

"Louise, you are young yet, a mere child, and I'm afraid you do not know what you are doing. You think you have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep thing, and you are too young to understand what it really is. I think you love him as you do, if you wish, and all you treat him with the kindest consideration, but do not go beyond that. If he speaks to you of love do not encourage him, for you are too young to have a great liking for Paul, but no one is apt to have for a good friend when friends are few. You admire his kindness of heart, for poor child, you have known little or nothing of him in your life. You like and esteem Paul above all others, but perhaps you may not love him. Love is a broad and a deep

[illegible]

100 Howard, W100.

THE RESULTS of THIS HERALD will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only medicine that cures it. It is the Medical Fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thus destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. No other cure has so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: Dr. J. C. Hall, 100 Howard St., Toledo, O.

NOT Sold by Druggists, 75c.

A CROWN SWEEP.—A SPECIAL from Frankfort says that the three Railroad Commissioners appointed under the Buckner administration will have to go when their commissions expire. The Governor has decided to appoint three entirely new men from among his own friends. It is said the appointees will be, for the First District, John C. McChord, the attorney of Owensboro; for the Second District, C. C. McChord, the lawyer of Washington County; and for the Third District, John C. McChord, the lawyer of Harrison County. It is said the Governor also intends to appoint a new man as Commissioner of Agriculture, and that Mr. W. C. McChord expires in January. The Governor is evidently a believer in the political axiom that "the victor belongs the spoils," and that "the victor gets it worth."—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

AN HONEST Swede tells his story in plain but unmistakable language for the benefit of those who are suffering from the dread cough. "I was laid up for a week and took a severe cold and caught the croup. I gave her a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and in five minutes later I gave her one more. By this time she was able to cough up the green mucus in her throat. Then she went to sleep and slept good for 15 minutes. Then she got up and vomited; then she went back to bed and slept good for the remainder of the night. She got the croup the second day, but she was able to sleep all night with the same good results. I write this because I thought there might be some one in the same need and not know the true merits of this wonderful medicine. It is sold everywhere. Des Moines, Iowa, 50 cent bottles for sale by Ross & Swango, Hazel Green."

The Oldest Man Living.
A MAN has been discovered in Preston County, Va., who, if the evidence he produces is authentic, is the oldest man in the country. His name is John C. Carpenter, and he claims to have been born in Loudon County, Va., in 1742, making him 150 years of age at his next birthday. He has a good memory, and states that he drove a team in Braddock's Army, and was acquainted with General Washington and other prominent fathers of the Republic. Mr. Carpenter's son, who died some 3 years ago, it is claimed, was 100 years old, while his daughter, who resides in Maine, is a sprightly young miss of 80 summers.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment.
A CERTAIN cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Tetters, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczema, Itch, Prairie Scratches, Sore Nipples and Piles. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cases have been cured by it after all other treatment had failed. It is put up in 25 and 60 cent boxes. For sale by Rose & Swango. oct9v1

SHALL Auld Acquaintance Be Forgot?
STIRGINS—Who is that gentleman with whom you were talking a while ago?

"Pennybunker—He is an original humorist.
 "But why did you lift your hat continually while you were talking to him?"
 "He was telling me some original jokes, and whenever I recognize an old acquaintance I always lift my hat."—
 Texas Siftings.

Ashland Park Farm.
B. J. TREACY, of Lexington, says, "As to the merits of Quin's Ointment, I regard it as a very useful Medicine, has given very great satisfaction." For Cures, Sprains, Spavins, Windpuffs or any bunches it is invaluable. For sale by Rose & Swango.

"You are getting to be very fond of coffee, Mr. Hunker," said Mrs. Small to her star boarder, as he passed his cup up for the third replenishing.

"It isn't that, Mrs. Small," replied Hunker. "I'm taking the hot water treatment."

REV. SAM SMALL, in a prohibition speech at Atlanta, made some allusion to a certain saloon keeper, who louted him up and undertook to whip him. In the scuffle Mr. Small had two teeth knocked out. Now he has sued the saloonist for $3,000 damages, and Sam Jones asks for a renewal of his law license so that he can make a speech to the jury in behalf of Mr. Small. That speech will be worth listening to; in fact it will be the sensation of Atlanta, and there won't be standing room within half a mile of the Court House the day he makes it.—Lexington Transcript.

True, laws of health are taught in our school books, and in a way to be of much practical benefit and are never illustrated by living examples, which in many cases could easily be done. If some scholar, who had just contracted a cold was brought before the school, the teacher could say, "Cough, and know its significance"; see the thin white coating on the tongue and later, as the cold develops, see the profuse watery expectoration and thin watery discharge from the nose, not one of the symptoms of a cold were absent. The scholar should then be given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, freely, that all might see that even a severe cold could be cured in one or two days, or at least greatly mitigated, with this pure preparation. The teacher should then point out the sign of recovery, the cold being nearly over. For sale by Rose & Swango.

A Chummy Spot.
 "WHAT do you know about heaven?" asked an Edinburgh Sunday school teacher of the smallest scholar in the class.
 "It's where we go to when we die," replied the small scholar, who was not four years old; "and little girls can talk all they please, with no one to tell 'em to stop.—Edinburgh Scotsman."

Consumption Cured.
 A. O. physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a medicine, which he has used with success and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive cure of nervous debility, Rheumatism and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make known to the world the English name of the medicine, and its use. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this medicine and directions for its use. English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Noyes, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

491

BROWN, Old Packlist is the most re-

religious man I ever saw. He kept dinner waiting over 15 minutes today while he said grace. Merritt—Yet I know when he holds a fellow's note he doesn't give him a moment's grace.

A GREAT many persons who have found no relief from other treatment, have been cured of rheumatism by Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Do not give up until you have tried it. It is only 50 cents per bottle. For sale by Rose & Swango.

$1.00
ONLY FOR A
DECKER BROTHERS
GRAND PIANO
AND A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION

TO THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER

A Decker Bro. Grand Upright Piano, $650.00
A Gladiator Watch and Case	30.00
A Lemaire 24 line Field Glass	20.00
A Holman Parallel Bible	13.00
A Venice Parlor Clock	12.00
A High Grade Safety Bicycle	125.00
An Elgin Watch and Boss Case	25.00
A Haydock Rice Coll Spring	200.00
Handy Top B-gy
A Railway Watch in 14 Karat Case	75.00
A Life Scholarship in Watern	75.00

A Six Octave Champion Organ . . .	200.00
A Double Barrel Shot Gun. . . .	30.00
A Silversne Case 7 Jewel Watch. . .	10.00
A High Arm Improved Sewing Machine.	55.00
A 15 Jewel Watch, Boss Case. . . .	35.00
A Five Octave Parlor Organ.	150.00
A Gladiator Watch, Dueber Case. . .	30.00
A John C. Dueber Watch & Case. . .	40.00

And 82 other valuable premiums will be presented to yearly subscribers of the Weekly Enquirer in April, 1892. Enclose one dollar for a year's subscription to the Weekly Enquirer, and what will be the number of subscribers in the five largest lists received from Nov. 1, '91, to March 31, '92.

GUESS

For same term last winter it was 2999, and the winter before was 1405.

The premiums are to be presented to those whose guesses are correct or nearest correct. For full list see Weekly Enquirer, now the largest 12 page dollar a year paper in the United States.

ENQUIRER COMPANY,
CINCINNATI, O.

AGENTS WANTED.
Good Solicitors make from $2.00 to $8.00 a day during Winter Season. Only those willing to work, ladies or gentlemen, need apply. ENQUIRER COMPANY, Cincinnati, O.

The Rev. A. Antoine, of Refugio, Tex., writes: As far as I am able to judge, I think Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic is a perfect success, for anyone who suffered from a most painful nervousness as I did, I feel like myself again after taking the Tonic.

A Sunday School Superintendent Endorses It.

SACRAMENTO, Northerner Co., Md., March 8, '91.

A scholar in the M. E. Sunday school (to which I am superintendent) I know was compelled to stay at home on account of her ailment (epileptic fits) for eight months, but since using Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic she attended regularly. I can assure the most remarkable I have ever seen or heard of, and this Nerve Tonic deserves the highest commendation. I have my fullest endorsement.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1877 and is now prepared under his direction by the KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.

Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5.
Large Size, $1.75. 6 Bottles for $9.

1891-1892.
HAZEL GREEN
ACADEMY.

→ Normal and Preparatory School, →

SECOND TERM BEGAN
MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1891.

TEACHERS' COURSE embraces all the branches required in the Common School Theory and Practice a specialty. Daily drills for Teachers.

BUSINESS COURSE, embraces the Teachers' Course Book Keeping Business

ENGLISH COURSE, prepares for Kentucky University, and Colleges of that class.
ANCIENT & MODERN LANGUAGES.

Our rates are less than any school in Eastern Kentucky: Rates of Tuition per Month:

$1.00, $1.50 and $2.00
Payable, one-half on entering School
the other at middle of term.

BOARDING.
 20—There will be no more trouble about too high board; the cost of board and lodging will be only $2.00 per week, keep-

THING FURNISHED. We can accommodate sixty boarders in our new building; new furniture and good fare. The teachers live in the Academy Home, and have the immediate charge of the boarders. H. G. Combs is the caterer; no better can be found.

FREE SCHOLARSHIPS.
Any scholars taking first and second honors on the completion of their courses in the Academy, shall be entitled to a free scholarship each in Kentucky University. A free scholarship in the Academy will be awarded to one pupil from each of the following mountain counties, viz: Breathitt, Clay, Elliott, Floyd, Harlan, Johnson, Knott, Lee, Leslie, Letcher, Lawrence, Martin, Magoffin, Menefee, Morgan, Owsley, Perry, Pike, Powell and Rowan: provided, such arrangements have been made for the competitive examination by the common school authorities, or with their consent, as shall enable each student of common school grades to compete for the scholarship, and the applicant therefor shall bear a certificate from the examiner that he has obtained the highest mark attained upon the examination.

We would advise all to enter at the beginning of a term, but you can enter at any time and classes will be arranged.

You cannot find a better school in the mountains of Kentucky. Our rates are low.

our methods of teaching Norton, we keep abreast with the tide of education. Our pupils are our best advertisement. We refer you to them.

Hazel Green is the prettiest town in East ern Kentucky; free from many of the evils of railway towns, and those of more population; no saloons or harbors of temptation.

The people welcome strangers, and influences for good are thrown around them.
All boarders will be under the supervision of the teachers. Send for catalogue, etc.

May 8, 1891.

WM. H. CORD.
PRINCIPAL.

D. R. J. F. LOCKHART,

DENTIST.

EZEL, KY
TEACHERS INSTITUTE PROCEEDINGS

With a new trimming machine, a model stapler, fast job press, an abundance of type and superior workmen, we are better prepared to print Institute Proceedings than any office in Eastern Kentucky. Please give us your orders. SPENCER COOPER, Editor Herald, Hazard, Green, Ky.

C. F. Brower & Co.

Main and Broadway, LEXINGTON, KY.

DON'T GO ELSEWHERE TO BUY YOUR

WOOD MANTELS, WALL PAPER, FURNITURE, DRAPERIES, CARPETS &c.

We can supply you, at prices that will save you money. Having large show rooms we carry a complete stock in all the different branches, and with facilities for buying at the lowest possible prices, we are enabled to successfully meet all competition.

Cincinnati . and . Louisville . Prices . Duplicated.

C. F. Brower & Co.

Carpets, Furniture, Wall Paper, Draperies.

KENTUCKY CENTRAL RAILWAY. —BLUE GRASS ROUTE—
SHORTEST AND QUICKEST ROUTE FROM CENTRAL KENTUCKY TO ALL POINTS NORTH, EAST, WEST AND SOUTHWEST FAST LINE BETWEEN LEXINGTON AND CINCINNATI.
SCHEDULE IN EFFECT NOV. 15, 1891.
SOUTH BOUND.		No. 1.	No. 5.	No. 3.
		Express	Fast	Accom.
Cincinnati.....Le	8:00 am	8:00 pm	7:30 pm
Paris.....Ar	9:00 am	9:00 pm	8:00 pm
Lexington.....Ar	11:18 am	11:00 am	10:00 pm
		12:00 pm	11:00 pm	7:00 pm
Winchester.....Le	11:25 am		9:35 pm
Richmond.....Le	12:00 pm		7:00 pm
Richmond.....Le	1:35 pm		7:30 pm
Corbin.....Le	4:00 pm
Corbin.....Le	4:30 pm
Midvilleburgh.....Le	7:30 pm
Midvilleburgh.....Le	8:00 pm
Corbin.....Le	9:30 pm
Williamsburg.....Le	9:45 pm
Jellison.....Le	6:20 pm
Richmond.....Le	1:30 pm
Laureate.....Le	4:40 pm
Standford.....Ar	5:20 pm
NORTH BOUND.		No. 2.	No. 4.	No. 6.
		Express	Daily	Accom.
Standford.....Ar	10:00 am
Laureate.....Ar	7:50 am
Richmond.....Ar	10:00 am
Jellison.....Ar	8:45 am
Williamsburg.....Ar	9:00 am
Williamsburg.....Ar	9:30 am
Corbin.....Ar	10:00 am
Corbin.....Ar	11:15 am
Richmond.....Ar	6:05 am	12:00 pm
Richmond.....Ar	6:55 am	1:30 pm
Winchester.....Ar	7:00 am	1:40 pm
Lexington.....Ar	7:10 am	2:40 pm	3:45 pm
Paris.....Ar	7:50 am	2:35 pm	1:20 pm
Cincinnati.....Ar	10:35 am	2:25 pm	1:10 pm
Cincinnati.....Ar	11:00 am	5:45 pm	4:45 pm
S. R. KNOTT, C. P. ATMORE, Traffic Manager. Gen. Pass. Agt. General Offices, Louisville, Ky.
S. F. B. MUNK, Asst. Gen. Pass. Agt. Office, Chamber of Commerce Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.
No. 1. Daily to all points except Rowland Division, which is daily except Sunday.
No. 2. Runs daily except Sunday from Lexington to Cincinnati.
No. 1. Runs daily.
No. 2. Runs daily from all stations except the Rowland Division, which is daily except Sunday.
No. 3. Daily between Cincinnati and Lex- ington.
and 3 make connections at Win- chester for points on the N. S. & M. V. E. R.
No. 1. Carries through cars from Cincin- nati to Middletown and Cumberland Gap and all intermediate stations and runs daily.					